

SANIA MULLA

Front-End Developer | Digital Marketer

SUMMARY

I'm a Computer Engineer based in Pune, blending logic with creativity. With a strong foundation in software and hardware, and hands-on experience in C++, Python, HTML, and CSS, I'm passionate about crafting tech that connects. My journey merges technical depth with a love for visual storytelling, content design, and social media strategy. I thrive on turning ideas into engaging, impactful digital experiences. Whether it's developing intuitive interfaces or strategizing digital content, I aim to create value through design and innovation. I'm always eager to explore, experiment, and evolve in this dynamic tech-meets-creative space.
